Lana's Lines – VERY Busy time but all going well and everything is in hand!
There will be a supper night on Monday.

From Lesley...

I just want to thank those members who put themselves forward for the three Art Deco Trust events that we participated in over the past weekend. You had to have extra practices and auditions, as well as be prepared to sing in the rain on Saturday! I really appreciate your efforts, and I know that the crowds of people who watched you also appreciated you. We did everything that we were asked to do, and then some. Lynne Smith made a comment that I liked: she said we touched so many people with our singing, they will remember us. And they do.

Many thanks,
Lesley

Betty reminds us –

1. $10.00 cash in named envelope for our "Riser Raiser".
2. Contact lists – keep Betty informed of changes of address, phone numbers, email addresses.
3. Make sure you have indicated your preference for hair-do in Dunedin.

From the Editors desk. Not many notices this week but I have heard that everyone involved in the Art Deco singouts did well in spite of the farmers' prayers being answered on quite the wrong weekend. Fortunately for me Nelson turned on a perfect week, the bride at the wedding I attended must have ordered all the good weather to come her way.

Nancy's Notes

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Art Deco Sings. "Singin in the Rain" takes on a new meaning of us, but we were well received at all singouts.

for some

Lynne Smith had a fabulous time - she was raving about Art Deco. Special thanks to Lesley and Gerry for hosting her and entertaining Lynne by taking in some of our Art Deco delights.

Energy plus was Monday night - we came so far in a few short hours – please ensure that we all practise our “moves” before next Monday. If you were unable to attend rehearsal this week, please speak/meet with someone who can bring you up to speed. David, thank you for videoing again on Monday evening.
